Charleston After the Itata.

SAN PEDRO (Cal.), May 11.—The cruiser Charleston, which arrived off here last evening at 7 o'clock, remained until 5 o'clock this morning, at which hour she left, going south.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—The fact is no longer concealed in official naval circles that the swift cruiser Charleston is now off on a hot chase after the Chilean transport Itata, which left San Diego last Wednesday while under arrest, and carrying off the Deputy U. S. Marshal. The Itata, after leaving San Diego, took on board a contingent of rifles and ammunition, which had been shipped from San Francisco on the schooner Robert and Minnie. The transfer of the latter's cargo is believed to have occurred off San Clemente Island, northwest of San Diego harbor, and it is believed the Itata steamed south on Friday night or Saturday morning. The Chilean cruiser Esmeralda is believed to be lying off Cape San Lucas, which is the most southern point in Lower California, awaiting supplies carried by the Itata.

The sea run to that point is about 700 miles. The Itata being heavily loaded and although reported as a fast craft, it is estimated that it cannot exceed 6 to 8 knots, and the Charleston, which left San Pedro this morning, it is thought certain can overtake her or reach San Lucas in advance of the transport. If not found there the Charleston will proceed direct to Acapulco, which will be the first point at which any further intelligence can be received. Even though the cruiser Esmeralda is met as convoy of the Itata, it is understood the orders of the Charleston are explicit on the point of capture, and if the Itata is signalled it is believed certain now that there will be a capture or fight, or both.

SAN DIEGO, May 11.—The steamer Charleston was sighted off Point Loma at 11:30 o'clock this morning; she was under full steam and heading southeast.

Canadian Overtures.

OTTAWA, May 11.—The Canadian government has made overtures to the imperial authorities to learn whether the present arrangements under the operation of which cattle are exported from Canada to Great Britain, will be continued if American cattle are allowed to be slaughtered in bond within the Dominion. This has reference to the proposed Bender Dead Cattle Company's scheme for its abattoirs at Three Rivers, to which Canadian cattle are shipped, and to which Canadians are opposed on the ground that it would place their trade in danger of being scheduled with that of Americans in British ports, thus depriving them of the present discrimination in favor of Canadian trade.

A Vir-India Quarrel.

CHICAGO, May 11.—A Perryville (W. Va.) special says: Lewis Hall and his son, Lewis Hall Jr., got into a quarrel near Knox Creek with Samuel Steel. In the shooting which ensued, the son Lewis was shot through the heart and instantly killed. Hiram Steel was pierced with seven bullets and died in a few minutes. Samuel Steel was mortally wounded and was dying shortly afterwards, and Lewis Hall was slightly wounded but escaped.

Heavy Failure.

CHICAGO, May 11.—The Belding Motor and Manufacturing Company made an assignment this morning. Liabilities $175,000, of which $100,000 is for borrowed money. Assets not scheduled, but thought not to exceed the liabilities. The suspension is caused by two disastrous fires which ruined the company's stock and shops at Hermosa, and by the failure of capitalists to fulfill their promises of financial support.

Secrecy in Naval Circles.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON (D. C.), May 11.—An air of secrecy surrounding the Itata case is just as pronounced as ever, at the Navy Department to-day, and it is evident the officials have no desire to take the public into their confidence. The conviction, however, is general that the United States steamer Charleston was sent out with secret orders to capture the Itata. Just how far these orders extend or how much authority they vest in Captain Reusey, is still unknown and none of the officials here will venture to give any information on the subject. The order, it is said, was a long one and was wired west in the cypher of the Bureau of Navigation. Officers who required four or five hours to translate the orders into cipher, said their information in the hands of the government was to warrant the belief that the Itata will be next heard of touching a Mexican port, and probably the Charleston will make her first stop amid way down the coast of Mexico, in hopes of picking up hints as to her whereabouts.

Jamaica Exhibition.

By Cable and Associated Press.

HALIFAX, May 11.—Adams Brown, the Canadian Commissioner to the Jamaica exhibition, returned from Kingston, Jamaica, and reports the exhibition a great success in every thing but its finances. Brown says the people of Jamaica feel very sore over the neglect of the United States, with which the largest part of the trade of the island is done, to take part in the exhibition. Strong efforts are being made to induce the government to send commissioners to Washington to see if Blaine can be induced to allow existing relations between the two countries to continue. People want to hold on to their enormous trade with the United States, but do not want to come under the reciprocity provisions of the McKinley bill for the reason that to abolish or materially lower its tariff on American breadstuffs and manufactures, will cripple its revenue as well as discriminate against England and her colonies.

American Sunday Schools.

By Associated Press.

NEWARK (N. J.), May 11.—The sixty-seventh anniversary of the American Sunday School Union was celebrated in an address made by the secretary of the missions. The following is a summary of the work accomplished during the year ending March 1, 1891: New Sunday schools organized 1,820, with 7,665 teachers and 63,210 scholars; 2,068 other schools aided, with 13,201 teachers and 125,927 scholars; 5,069 schools previously reported were aided, containing 242,930 teachers and scholars, making a total of 452,930 teachers and scholars. Missionaries distributed 7,447 bibles, and 1,124 testaments; made 49,640 visits to families and delivered 14,003 addresses. Between 4,000 and 5,000 persons professed conversion at Evangelist services and at least 130 churches have been developed from Sunday Schools established by missionaries.

Death of Mrs. Smith.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 11.—Mrs. Emma R., wife of William Henry Smith, General Manager of the Associated Press, died of paralysis at Monte Clair, N. J., this morning. Mrs. Smith has been a great sufferer from heart disease for several years and made two trips to Europe seeking relief. The funeral services and interment will be in the west, but whether at Cincinnati or Lake Forest, Illinois, cannot be determined until the arrival of her son this evening.

Gladstone Sick.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LONDON, May 11.—Gladstone, the most prominent man of Great Britain, is on the sick list. He went to church yesterday and seemed to be enjoying his usual health. In the afternoon, however, the veteran statesman was seized with a succession of shivering fits. Sir Andrew Clark, Gladstone's family physician, although not pronouncing his illness to be of a serious nature, declared Gladstone must not leave his room for several days.

Coroner's Verdict.

By Associated Press.

CLARKSBURG (W. Va.), May 11.—The coroner's jury in the Ocean mine disaster returned a verdict censuring the owners and bosses and accusing them of willfully neglecting necessary precautions for the safety of the men. The matter will be brought to the attention of the Grand Jury next week.

Hungarian Crops.

By Cable and Associated Press.

BUDA PEST, May 11.—Crop reports to date show that barley, oats, rye and feeding stuffs throughout Hungary are suffering greatly, owing to excessive heat which prevailed recently. The wheat crop is a fair average.

Singular Explosion.

By Cable and Associated Press.

LONDON, May 11.—A terrific explosion of gas occurred to-day in the hold of the British steamer Tancerville, which is undergoing repairs in the dry dock at Newport. Five men were instantly killed and thirteen injured. The steamer was badly damaged. The Tancerville is a tank steamer engaged in carrying oil from American ports. The force of the explosion was so great that the foredeck was torn from its fastenings and blown off. As the steamer was out of water there was no pressure on the hull to counterbalance the tremendous outward strain exerted by the explosion, and it is reported some plates on the bottom of the Tancerville were blown out. The wood work in the forward portion of the steamer caught fire, but the flames were soon extinguished.

A later dispatch from Newport says the loss of life caused by the explosion on the steamer Tancerville is larger than at first stated. The dispatch says eight were killed and twenty-five others injured. Over 100 men and boys were employed in and around the vessel when the explosion occurred. Large pieces of timber and iron from the steamer were blown with terrific force through the air and some hurled against the workshops situated fifty yards away, causing much damage to them. A number of workmen employed in the shops were struck by pieces of flying debris and some of them severely injured.

Important Decision.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 11.—The United States Supreme Court to-day decided a case involving the constitutionality and validity of a law of Pennsylvania taxing the Pullman Palace Car Company a basis proportionate to the number of miles of railroad within the State over which the company's cars run, compared with the total number of miles of railroad in the United States over which the cars run. The Court holds the law constitutional and not in violation of the interstate commerce law. The Court also decided in the same way a case from Massachusetts, involving practically the same question as applied to the lines of the Western Union Telegraph Company in Massachusetts.

Lynching Soldiers Arrested.

Special to the Gazette.

WALLA WALLA, May 11.—Six soldiers belonging to troop D have been arrested for complicity in the recent lynching of Hunt. It is thought the soldiers were arrested upon information furnished by Corporal Arnold, who was arrested a few days ago. Arnold, the day before the lynching, had charge of the quarters and unlocked the arms rack, giving the men their carbines, and is said to have been with them when they waylaid the Sheriff on the day preceding the lynching.

Oil Wells Burned.

By Associated Press.

ON CITY (Pa.), May 11.—A message just received from Superintendent Strong of the Oil City Fuel Co. from Pine Grove township says: Thus far thirteen oil wells have burned and the fire is still burning. The fuel company is in receipt of a message to-day from Elk and Clearfield counties announcing serious forest fires which are spreading.

Another Convention.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The fifteenth annual convention of Millers National Association began this afternoon, 250 members of the organization from all parts of the country being present. President James made the annual address, in which he mentioned the association as a prosperous one and the treasury in good condition.

OUR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR

Returns From a Visit to His Old Home at Pioche.

Lieutenant-Governor Ponjabe arrived from Pioche on Saturday evening and went to Carson yesterday. He has been visiting at Pioche for a month past, and reports the old town as being fairly prosperous, but not like it was in its palmy days. The new smelters building there give employment to a number of men and times are promising for improvement. He returned by the Salt Lake route, but did not stay to witness the President's reception. The city was gaily decorated with flags and bunting and indicated lavish preparations for the interesting event.

The Statutes for 1891.

The GAZETTE returns thanks to Hon. O. H. Grey for a volume of the statutes of Nevada for 1891. They are out this year two months earlier than they have ever been issued before, notwithstanding the Legislature adjourned nineteen days later. The Secretary of State had no help in copying and indexing, which speaks well for the management of affairs in his office.

The transit of Mercury began here at 3 h. 43' 59" P. M. Saturday. The seeing was good and the beginning and the progress well seen by our local astronomer, C. W. Irish.

BLAINE IS BETTER.

Presidential Party in Leadville.

PRESENT TO THE PRESIDENT.

An Object Lesson Given in a Silver Brick.

Fatal Forest Fire in Pennsylvania.

A Brick Is His Hat.

LEADVILLE (Col.), May 11.—The Presidential party arrived at 7:30 o'clock this morning and was given an enthusiastic reception by a large crowd of people assembled at the depot. The streets and buildings were handsomely decorated. At the hotel, where the party were taken in carriages, Judge Goddard delivered an address of welcome and presented the President with a brick weighing nearly 700 pounds, made of Leadville silver 999 fine. It bore the inscription "To Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States, from the smelting of Leadville, May 11, 1891." On the reverse side was the inscription "4159-633,078 in 12 years." President Harrison responded and was followed by Postmaster General Wadsworth and Secretary Rusk in short speeches. The party then entered carriages and were driven to Main's where they had a cordial reception; thence back to the train which left the depot at 9 o'clock amid the hearty cheers of the populace. A demonstration by over 3,000 children was one of the features of the day. The ladies of the party received many beautiful souvenirs. It is learned to-day that some of the party were robbed of small sums of money while at the Portland Hotel in Portland, Oregon, last Tuesday night.

Blaine Better.

NEW YORK, May 11.—It was stated at the house of Walter D. Damrosch, where Secretary Blaine is now ill, that the Secretary this morning is greatly improved. Dr. Dennis said there was nothing alarming about Blaine's condition and advised rest and quiet, and the only medicine prescribed was pepsin for indigestion.

Mrs. Blaine said: "Since the President's absence from Washington Mr. Blaine has been working very hard, and in fact he has been called upon to look after all the affairs of the Department of State."

She denied that he had another attack of vertigo, and said he would be able to return to Washington in a few days.

A Forest Holocaust.

By Associated Press.

ELMIRA, May 11.—A Condes Point (Pa.) special says: Yesterday while a train containing one hundred men on their way to fight the forest fires in Potter county, the train was wrecked in the midst of the burning woods and the engines and cars were destroyed. Eighty or more men were burned to death. A special from Austin (Pa.) tells of the wreck of a train in the southern part of the country and says seventy-five men were seriously, and perhaps fatally, burned. Superintendent Badger of the S. V. railroad and three or four men are still missing. The entire southern part of the county has been swept by flames.

By Associated Press.

BOSTON, May 11.—An express deal has just been consummated which will give the National Express a through route from the Atlantic to the Pacific. By the terms of the agreement, the American express company withdraws entirely from the Fitchburg railroad on the 15th of May and the National takes possession. Hereafter the American will send all their western business over the Boston and Albany.

Lumber Traders Strike.

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 11.—The Lumber Trade Association began to-day a lock-out and boycott, which, its members assert, will cause a total cessation of building operations in this city before long. This action by the association is to force the board of walking delegates to raise the boycott on one of the members of the association, and to accomplish this they intend to stop the delivering of lumber to all buildings where union men work.

Not one foot of lumber was delivered to-day. There are thirty-five hundred men out of work, and 75 per cent belong to labor unions. There are now 80 firms in the Lumber Dealers' Association and others are joining all the time.

Deadly Fend.

By Associated Press.

KNOXVILLE (Tenn.), May 11.—Details of a murderous affray which occurred on Wolf Creek, near the North Carolina line, are received here. Jonathan Bell, an old and well known well-to-do man, lost his wife by death six weeks ago. After two weeks he married a girl seventeen years old greatly to the disgust of his family. As the time passed they grew more dissatisfied, and finally they went in a body to the old man's home and taking the young wife out stripped her and gave her 100 lashes. On the following day, on warrant of elder Bell and one John Ballew, the whippers were arrested, but released on bonds; then they went to Ballew's house to punish him for interfering. Ballew resisted and in the battle which followed John Bell was killed. "Big" and "Wild Bill" Bell, Hiram Morton, Jack Johnson and three others were fatally shot. Johnson and "Big Bill" have since died, and it is said others are dying. There have been no arrests and both sides are armed for more warfare.

Fight With Strikers.

By Associated Press.

DENVER, May 11.—A terrible fight took place in this city this forenoon between a party of striking brick-makers and a gang of colored men engaged by F. Davis, proprietor of the brick yards here, to take their places. Davis, his son, and the negroes were all heavily armed going to work, when they were intercepted by the band of strikers and ordered back. Davis warned the strikers to get out of the way. The latter refused and Davis and his men opened fire. Two strikers were mortally wounded and sixteen others more or less hurt. Davis' party were all arrested. Davis says the strikers had guns but the latter deny it.

The McKinley Tariff.

At the banquet of the American Protective Tariff League, given in New York on April 29th, among the speakers was the Hon. Wm. McKinley, who introduced his remarks in the following language:

"I am glad to belong to a party and to advocate a principle which was advocated by such men as Hamilton, Clay, Webster, Lincoln, Chase, Garfield, Harrison and Blaine. No man can feel insecure in the advocacy of a great principle which every President of the United States, except three, had advocated, from Washington to Harrison, and which the earliest statesmen of all parties held essential to national welfare and independence. We will have tariffs so long as we have a government, and the only difference among the people is as to whether it shall be levied having in view the single purpose of raising the requisite revenue for governmental purposes. All of us agree—whether we are Democrats or whether we are Republicans—that the tariff is the wisest and best mode by which to raise the great bulk of the revenue required to conduct our government, only differing as to the principle upon which that tariff shall be levied, whether on the English system for the purpose of revenue only, or for the additional purpose of giving encouragement to our own industries and our own enterprises and employment to our own labor. And, as we have to resort to tariffs, as we must tax foreign products—whether we are Democrats or whether we are Republicans—to keep the wheels of government in operation, the party to which I belong declares that those tariffs shall be so levied upon foreign competing products as to stimulate American genius, American development, and give remunerative employment to American labor and a home market to the American farmer."

Continuing, he said: "There is an impression—a very general impression—that the protective tariff originated with the manufacturers of the United States; that protective tariffs were inaugurated and are maintained by the manufacturers of the United States. The exact reverse is true in American history. The men who made the first great protective tariff law, signed by George Washington on the Fourth of July, 1789, were the farmers of the United States. That first great Congress was occupied by planters, and farmers, with a few professional men here and there, but largely in the minority; and the men who made that tariff were either the planters and farmers themselves or they were the representatives of an agricultural constituency. And they made it for a purpose. They made it with their eyes open, looking to the future. I have always been proud of that first great act. Why, it was the second law passed by the American Congress and signed by Washington on that day memorable in American history. The men who made it had the courage, which we never have had since, of putting in the body of the bill exactly what they meant. They declared that they were making that tariff bill for two purposes. First, to raise revenue to conduct the infant government, and, secondly, to encourage manufactures."

EMPEROR WILLIAM approved students' duels in his speech at Bonn Friday, but he has recently issued orders to check dueling between army officers. Perhaps if he began with the students he would have less trouble with the officers. The German students duel and the customs which lead up to it are out of place in the nineteenth century. It is hard to say whether they are the more revolting or ridiculous.

It is reported that Blaine's last note to Rudini has turned opinion in England strongly in our favor. That is simply because the note presented facts, in their logical connection and sound deductions therefrom. The American position is argumentatively impregnable and Italy can no more dispute it from the diplomatic than from the military point of view.

ARSENICAL POISONING.

The Deadly Drug Is Extensively Used in the Manufacture of

The peculiar character of arsenic and its wonderful power of combination with other substances to produce a great variety of brilliant and enduring colors have brought it into a very extensive use, which has steadily and rapidly increased until it now enters into the manufacture of a very large variety of domestic articles, many of which are worn as clothing or brought into close contact with those who use them, and there is hardly a household in the country but has more or less of this poison in some form.

There are various articles of domestic use into which arsenic is incorporated, says the Boston Herald. We sleep in bedrooms the walls of which are hung with paper filled with arsenic. Our most beautiful draperies are equally loaded with this poison. We sit upon sofas which every time they are compressed throw into the atmosphere this same poison. We wear clothing containing enough arsenic, if taken into the stomach, to produce a speedy death. Our little children are wrapped in beautiful shawls containing this same death-dealing drug. Their playthings are rendered more beautiful and attractive by this very poison. The papers in which their bon-bons and candies are enveloped are colored with arsenical preparations. Even the utensils in which our food is cooked are sometimes lined with this poison.

Now, if any considerable proportion of arsenic is taken into the stomach at once, its effects are so uniformly severe that suspicion of poisoning is immediately aroused and search is made for the cause of it. But when it is taken very slowly the symptoms are so masked by many surrounding circumstances and conditions that even the most experienced physicians do not discover the cause. The soreness of the throat, the difficulty of breathing, the nausea and vomiting, the pallor and weakness, often are attributed to entirely different causes, and it may be months or even years before the true cause is discovered.

To-day one of the most honored citizens of Boston is lying on his deathbed after two or more years of prostrations and suffering, and it is only within the last few months that it was discovered that he was saturated with arsenic, which his system has been gradually absorbing from long continued exposure to it. The nicer chemical tests of late years are discovering the same condition in many chronic invalids, while every physician has had cases which, resisting all treatment, he has been obliged to send away from home into different surroundings before they could be relieved.

Ought we not, then, to have laws which will protect us from this insidious danger, which is concealed under forms most attractive and alluring? That arsenic is a very important substance in the arts, and may in many cases be so combined as to be partially inert, is very true; yet, as it is often left in a free condition and capable of producing poisonous effects upon the human system, why should it not always, when so offered for sale, be labeled as poison?

SPONTANEOUS COMBUSTION.

Whisky in His System Burned an Old

The supporters of the much-disputed theory of spontaneous combustion have received fresh grounds of belief from the case of Milton Hardcastle, of Baltimore, whose remains were recently found nearly consumed in his shanty on the outskirts of that city, says the Philadelphia Times. Hardcastle was an old negro of unknown age, enjoying a small monthly income left him some years ago by his former owner, Col. Eustace Hardcastle, and which went almost entirely for whisky. It is said that the negro consumed a gallon and a half a day, and would often buy and drink the pure alcohol in large quantities, often for days at a time partaking of no other nourishment. He lived all alone, being of a singularly taciturn disposition, so that it was some days before he was missed, but his shanty was observed to remain closed and search being instituted he was found in his bed burned nearly to a crisp, while the mattress and clothes were only slightly scorched.

The room was in perfect order and no trace of fire was found on the hearth, which was swept clean, and as Hardcastle was known to have been unique among negroes in never smoking the whole affair seemed shrouded in mystery. Dr. Everhardt was called upon by the authorities to make an investigation and gave it as his opinion that it was a case of spontaneous combustion. In this he has been supported by several other prominent physicians, who agree in declaring the circumstances admit of no other explanation.

A "Dog Modiste" in Paris.

Lovers of pet dogs will be interested in the visit of an American lady to the store of a "dog modiste" in Paris. The sights were very amusing. The place was not so much a store as an establishment, with halls and rooms richly furnished. Ladies tripped in and out all day long, most of the visitors having with them pugs or terriers. The pet dogs were scattered through the rooms, each awaiting its turn. Many small mats and rugs were around the waxed floors, and every bit of carpeting of the kind was occupied by some pretty little creature. These dogs have various dresses. The robe used in the morning is a garment of dark blue cloth. It is called a paletot, and is lined with red flannel. From a leather collar little bells jingle as its wearer walks along. Sometimes a bunch of violets is fastened on the left shoulder of a dog. On very cold days the pet is clad in sealskin of the same pattern, the collar being of fur, mounted in silver.

A Burglar's Outfit.

Over one hundred tools and processes have been invented by safe burglars, which are marvels of ingenuity and scientific knowledge. A recent burglar's outfit captured by the police consisted of a little giant knob breaker, a diamond drill and a high explosive of the nature of powder, but put up in the form of a dynamite. It would open the strongest bank safe in a half hour, and without noise enough to disturb people in the next house, while the entire outfit could be carried in the pockets of an ordinary coat.

MISCELLANEOUS.

Malaria

It is believed to be caused by poisonous miasms arising from low, marshy land or from decaying vegetable matter, and which, breathed into the lungs, enter and poison the blood. If a healthy condition of the blood is maintained by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, one is much less liable to malaria, and Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured many severe cases of this distressing affection.

A Wonderful Medicine.

"For malaria I think Hood's Sarsaparilla has no equal. It has kept my children well right through the summer, and we live in one of the worst places for malaria in Maryland. I take Hood's Sarsaparilla for that all-gone feeling, with great benefit." MRS. B. F. DAVIS, Maryland, Cal.

Break-Bone Fever.

"My daughter Pearl was taken with dengue or break-bone fever 2 years ago, and my friends thought I would lose her. I had almost given up hope until she began to take Hood's Sarsaparilla. She took four bottles in four months, and gained 15 pounds. I thank Hood's Sarsaparilla for giving her back to me restored to health and strength." JULIA A. KING, Sherman, Texas.

The Great Spring Medicine.

It will be gratifying to all who realize the vital necessity of purifying the blood, to know that Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup can be relied upon as a blood medicine.

GENTLEMEN—I have suffered intensely from biliousness and rheumatism for over three years and had tried so many remedies that I had lost all faith. Hearing of Hibbard's Rheumatic Syrup I bought a bottle and found it helped me. I have now used four bottles, and feel restored and my kidneys to healthy action, and done more to purify my blood than anything I have ever taken. I am pleased to recommend it as a wonderful blood medicine.

THE BOARD OF TRADE.

An Interesting Meeting Held Saturday.

The Board of Trade held an interesting meeting Saturday. Manager Fulton reported that he had been in correspondence with people in Tennessee, and had sent them State reports and such publications as the Board had at various times issued and that the people there took kindly to the advantages Nevada offered. The manager read the following letter from J. B. Williams which explains itself:

GLEASON, Tenn., April 23, '91.

R. L. Fulton, Esq.—DEAR SIR: Your esteemed favor of the 6th inst. arrived several days ago and has been read with much interest. Other mail also arrived this time, all of which has been carefully read and placed where I thought it would do most good. Send along all the mail you wish to be placed in the hands of intending immigrants, as I will gladly distribute it among people that are interested. There is great dissatisfaction here at present among, not only farmers, but business and professional men. Almost every man that is situated so he can leave here is going to leave. Money was never known to be as scarce here as at present. I am anxious to see miles from Dresden and five miles from Gleason, away out in the country. If a circle was drawn two miles in diameter with my house in the center, the circle would contain 250 to 300 persons, with fully one-third negroes, and I don't suppose I could, by mortgaging my farm, borrow $25 00 in the circle. A poor man that he is fortunate to get a "job," for a few days at fifty cents per day, and a carpenter can't obtain work at $1 50 per day.

I was talking the other day with a prominent carpenter of Gleason concerning the prices that are paid for labor in your State. He tells me that he has rented land and gone to farming, as he didn't suppose he could have obtained work at $1 50 per day in a month. He says if you think first-class mechanics are needed in Nevada and could be sure to find employment, he could come out this Fall with a number of sober, moral, industrious men. You could write him for particulars if you wish.

I will now tell you the cause of the dissatisfaction and hard times here. Faithful and conservative old men that have noted carefully the weather since the 1st day of July last say it has rained fully half the time since the above date and is still raining. In 1880 we had the first crop failure ever known in West Tennessee. It rained four months that year almost every day, making almost a total crop failure besides washing all hill lands to pieces. Last year we had the same thing, only not quite so bad, as it waited a little later to begin—July 1st and as above stated has been raining half the time since. It is now time corn was half knee high, and we haven't plowed any corn land. Ten years ago we could make ten bushels of wheat per acre. Now we can't make—well, practically none. The following is a correct estimate of the last patch of wheat raised on Glendale, ten acres in 1880:

Cost breaking 10 acres, $2 per acre $20 00
Harrowing same, 25 cents per acre 2 50
Ten bushels of seed at $1 per bushel 10 00
Sowing, 10 cents per acre 1 00
Re-harrowing, 25 cents per acre 2 50
Harvesting, $1 per acre 10 00
Threshing, 10 cents per bushel, 50 bushels 5 00Total cost $50 00
Add rent at $2 per acre $20 00
Made 50 bush. wheat, sold at 80c per bush. $40 00
Left me in debt $30 00

This is the last wheat that has been raised on Glendale. We haven't had any fruit in three or four years, always being killed by Spring frosts. Farmers are mortgaging their farms for money to get through on.

If your country is as good, or in the neighborhood of as good, as represented, I would not be afraid to warrant a large colony, say fifty or more families, to move to your State this fall, and they would not be trash either, but our best people, all strictly English speaking, moral, industrious, sober, educated Americans; and we would bring no considerable amount of capital, the proceeds of our property here. I could mention W. G. Parks of Gleason, a young educated man, thoroughly reliable and honest, his father worth $10,000 or $15,000; write him if you doubt any thing I say. Or J. L. Hodges, a strict member of the Baptist Church, Odd Fellow and C. & C., worth $10,000; write him for a verification of what I have said. Or B. D. Stallings of Gleason; or O. C. Carlton, a prominent saw mill man of Greenfield, Tenn., worth $8,000 or $10,000. Could name many more of our foremost men that would tell you the same tale. They would all want to locate where they would have good educational and religious advantages. I will say right here that should this crowd move to your State, they would bring some of the proudest and best accomplished young ladies that ever struck Nevada.

Now, Mr. Fulton, as I have explained, times are hard and money scarce here, and people cannot afford to throw it away traveling, unless they actually knew they would derive some benefit from it. The men I have mentioned are being worth $5,000 to $10,000 haven't got any money. That's the reason they want to move. Now some eight or ten men, such as described above, tell me to make the following proposition: That if you can arrange it with some real estate dealer or board of immigration, railroad company, or any way to bear half the necessary expenses of two reliable men from Gleason, Tenn., to your place and return, that they will pay the other half and send two suitable men out to look at your country, and if they find it as represented will look out location while there. You may ask why I send one man. But you know the bible says: "Out of the mouth of two or three witnesses the truth shall be established." Before tearing up and making such a sacrifice they want no room for doubt.

Now if your country will stand the test (which I have no doubt it will) of two us bringing along the printed matter you have so kindly sent me and examining for ourselves and you can make the above arrangements, we could come out about July 15th to September 15th.

Hoping to hear from you at your earliest convenience, I am most respectfully, your obedient servant,
J. B. WILLIAMS.

We, the undersigned prominent farmers and business men of Weakly county, Tennessee, certify that the above letter, by our friend J. B. Williams, is perfectly true to the best of our knowledge, and that the said J. B. Williams is in every way reliable and responsible, and that you may depend upon what he says. And we further certify that we are willing and ready to pay half of his and one other reliable man's expenses to any part of Nevada and return.

B. D. STALLINGS,
G. H. BRADBERRY,
G. W. PARKS,
J. L. HODGES,
T. J. BYNUM,
TOM DENNING,
O. C. CARLTON.

The Board instructed the manager to write and inform Mr. Williams that the Board would allow, not to exceed, $200 towards two agents expenses visiting this State with a view of getting the colony Mr. Williams says stands ready to immigrate from Tennessee. When they come they will be shown over the whole State, and it is quite likely they will report favorably. The Board is doing good work in many directions and their labors promise to bear fruit in the near future. The letters which have been published in the New York Tribune to further the objects of the Board are attracting widespread attention and are building up quite a Nevada fever throughout the east.

TRINITY CHURCH.

An Interesting Service and Good Singing There Yesterday.

The Episcopal Church was crowded yesterday morning almost beyond its capacity and the services were very interesting. The singing was remarkably good and the old familiar voice of Dickie Jose was heard to ring out in soft clear notes sweet anthems of praise. Dickie's voice has improved wonderfully since his last visit to Reno and it is particularly sweet in the higher register. The singing of Dickie Jose and playing of Prof. Hillman with his violin added much to the occasion.

Yesterday was the 61st birthday of good Bishop Whitaker, and if he could have but looked in on the congregation he would have been pleased that the seeds of christianity sown by him years ago bore such a beautiful harvest. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Lucas, took for his text the 16th chapter of St. Mark, 15th verse. Subject: "The Last Communion." "And he said unto them, go ye into the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

The pastor referred to the work being done by foreign missionaries. He said that the command was being faithfully carried out in all parts of the civilized world; that fifty years ago there was expended for the service to begin the Episcopal Church work only about $100,000 annually, while to-day there is being expended by the Protestants alone over $1,600,000—an increase in the last half of this century of over $1,500,000.

At the evening service Dickie Jose was again one of the choir, and the result was that long before the service to begin the Episcopal Church was packed with people as closely as sardines in a box. The church filled to overflowing, and the north lobby was a struggling mass of people writhing and wiggling to get nearer, while none could gain a sight of the choir. The crowd filled the lobby and the east entrance out to the sidewalk, over which it extended and into the carriages at the curbstone, and spread up and down Sierra and Second streets until the church was literally surrounded. The little churchyard was packed, and some of the windows being opened for ventilation, men and boys climbed up on the ledges and swinging themselves partly into the church remained in these positions with bodies and legs dangling on the outside like fish struggling through a net. The sidewalks becoming crowded many retreated and took up positions on the opposite sides of the streets and perched in the wagons around Hymers' corner. Many went home and their places on the sidewalks were taken by others. It is unnecessary to estimate the numbers, for had Reno a greater population the crowd would have been increased in proportion. As the service began all strained their ears and waited in silence to catch the long breath of Dickie's phenomenal voice, and when the first notes were heard a whisper run through the crowd outside who could not see him, and "That's him!" greeted one on every side and smiles of content illumined every face. None could deny that "music hath charms to soothe the savage breast," for even the Finest, reddish haired and the outskirts of the crowd, looked spell bound. It was a remarkable sight and until the close the interest never ceased. What the net results were the GAZETTE does not learn, but "to a man up a tree," looking on from the outside, it seemed impossible to pass the plate, and the idea was at once suggested that to all intents and purposes the Sabbath would not have been desecrated to any greater extent had the services been held in the Opera House. It was very evident that curiosity, and not sacred devotion, drew the crowd, and it was all the greater because it was a free show. At the close of the regular service Dickie Jose entertained those of his friends who remained with a few more choice selections, and it was 9:30 o'clock before the church lights were extinguished.

A Noble Organization.

WADSWORTH, May 8, 1891.
EDITOR GAZETTE: On Friday evening, May 15th, at Wadsworth, the ladies of the G. I. A. to B. L. E. will give a Pink and White Tea Party and social dance.

As the lodges of the G. I. A. have increased so rapidly in number, they are desirous of continuing and extending their good work in another direction. At their last convention at Pittsburg they decided to erect a home for orphan children of locomotive engineers.

In behalf of this cause and in response to a call from the Grand Lodge to aid in this noble work, are the ladies of the G. I. A. exerting themselves to make this social success, socially and financially.

Notice!

There will be a meeting of the Reno Clerks' League at the Justice Court rooms at 8:30 this evening. All the clerks of Reno are requested to be present. By order of O! The Misery of It.

Human wretchedness touches bottom in sea sickness. Life is held a feather's weight by the unfortunate afflicted with it.

Why endure its atrocious internal convulsions when Hostetter's Stomach Bitters relieves them instantly? Not only relieves, but prevents. It is not always on the "briny" that travelers' nausea is experienced. Railway journeying, riding with one's back to the horses or the locomotive sometimes produces it in super-sensitive stomachs. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is always a prompt remedy. The mischievous properties of break up water, the evil influence of miasma, unwholesome or unclean food, excessive fatigue, whether bodily or mental, the dyspeptic tendency bred by a dietary pursuit, the attacks of exposure to extremes of temperature or dampness, all these are effectually counteracted by this genial pre-ventive. It relieves also rheumatism, kidney and bilious trouble.
